Explanation of Insolvency Worksheet

The insolvency worksheet (on the next page) is used to determine if the 1099-C is taxable or not. A separate insolvency worksheet must be completed for each 1099-C.

Report the balance or fair market value (FMV) of your liabilities and assets as of the day before the debt was forgiven. For example, if box 1 of the 1099-C reports 02/15/2024 as the date of identifiable event, then report the balance or FMV of your liabilities and assets as of 02/14/2024, the day before the identifiable event.

If you require assistance or have questions on how to complete the worksheet, please contact us at 978-522-1434 to schedule an appointment.

IMPORTANT ADVICE: Keep the records used to complete the worksheet, such as credit card statements, bank statements, online values, appraisals, balance sheets, etc.
